

SOCIETY AND CLUBS

MISS MARGARET S. FORBES

CLUBDOM

Memphis Woman's Club.

The members of the Memphis Woman's club enjoyed their first meeting of the season with the retiring president, Mrs. Alston Boyd in her handsome home, Beverly Hall, on Central avenue on Friday, Mrs. Boyd, who has been an excellent president of the club, made a very graceful speech of farewell to the members and welcomed her successor, Mrs. Caruthers Ewing, to whom she presented the gavel. Mrs. Ewing responded most graciously and in her address to the members spoke of "New Pledges and Responsibilities." She spoke of the pleasure it afforded her to have been chosen as the leader of a club composed of women who stood for so much in the literary world and in the community as the members of the woman's club and told them that she would share with them the responsibilities of the office, which they had given her. Mrs. Charles N. Groves, chairman of the program committee, presided over the morning's program. She called upon the members in alphabetical order, to recount some pleasing or unusual experience of the summer, the recital proving most interesting.

Ladies' Temple Auxiliary.

The first meeting of the season of the Ladies' Temple auxiliary was held Thursday afternoon in the vestry rooms of the Poplar Avenue temple. Much business of importance was transacted. The following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. J. D. Marks; recording secretary, Mrs. E. O. Ottensmeyer; corresponding secretary, Miss Annie Hall; treasurer, Mrs. Leon Becker.

An interesting and pleasing program, arranged by Mrs. David S. Levy, was rendered, including a piano solo by Miss Jeanette Miriam Goldberg; and address by Rabbi Fine-shreiber and vocal selections by Mrs. Goodman. The program was followed by a social.

Beethoven Club.

The first meeting this season of the Beethoven club will be held on Wednesday evening, Oct. 12, at the home of Mrs. J. L. Hyatt, president. The standing committees will be appointed and other matters of importance will be discussed. The president, Mrs. J. F. Hill, urges a full attendance.

Sunshine Home Board.

The board of managers of the Sunshine Home for Aged Men met on Friday, when the annual election of officers was held, resulting in the re-election of the former officers with the exception of the secretary. The officers for the coming year are: Mrs. J. L. Hyatt, president; Mrs. J. T. Hinton, first vice-president; Mrs. R. E. Hunter, second vice-president; Mrs. W. C. Graves, recording secretary; Mrs. M. A. Whitten, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Lionel May, treasurer.

Local Zionists.

The Local Zionists will meet Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Baron Hirsch synagogue. Rabbi Hirschstrung, the new rabbi, will address the organization.

Nineteenth Century Club.

The annual membership dues of the Nineteenth Century club are now due, and members are kindly asked to mail a check to the custodian at the club.

Commodore Perry Chapter.

The first social and historical meeting of the Commodore Perry chapter, D. A. R., for the season, will be held with the regent, Mrs. Charles B. Bryan, 1640 Peabody avenue, Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Delegates to the Tennessee state conference, which convenes in Memphis, November 4 and 5, will be elected.

Braxton Bragg Chapter.

The Braxton Bragg chapter, U. D. C., will hold its first meeting of the season on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the home of the president, Miss Lillie Clark.

The election of officers and of delegates to the general convention will be held.

Orphan's Annual Outing.

The children of the Porter home and Leath orphanage will enjoy their annual automobile outing on Sunday given by Mrs. Herbert L. Owens in memory of her late husband.

The cars will leave the grounds at 8 o'clock and the children will enjoy a drive through the parks. All who wish to assist in bringing happiness to the children may donate the use of their car for the afternoon.

Jewish Aid Society.

The Ladies' Jewish Aid society will hold an important meeting on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the home of Mrs. L. J. Ochwanger, 1117 Faxon avenue. Mrs. Robert Cohen, the president, requests that members all be prompt.

MEETINGS OF MEMPHIS WOMEN'S ORGANIZATIONS

There will be a meeting of the board of managers and directors of the Home for Incurables on Monday morning at 10 o'clock at the home.

The John B. Cannon circle of the King's Daughters will meet with Mrs. B. P. Witsell, 1408 Harbert avenue, on Monday afternoon.

The LeRoy Pope Parent-Teacher association will meet on Tuesday afternoon at 3:15 o'clock at the school.

The Madison Heights Parent-Teacher association will meet on Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The election of a president will be held and all members have been urged to be present.
